Community Service Volunteers - Guidelines

The Department of Animal Services allows citizens who have been assigned community service hours as part of a court related matter to complete them in our shelters. We cannot allow people convicted of a felony or any animal related crime work in our shelters as a matter of safety. In addition, it is important to keep in mind that you will not be allowed to handle animals during your community service time. You will be performing support work for our staff-washing dishes, doing laundry, cleaning kennels, etc. Please read the following guidelines carefully-if you feel that you cannot comply with any of these, please seek other locations to complete your hours.

You must be at least 18 years of age to work at the shelter.

While you are working off your community service hours with us, you will be expected to:

1. Show up when scheduled and on time. Report to the Supervising Animal Care Attendant at the facility you have been assigned to when you arrive. Failure to showup on one occasion or arriving more than 30 minutes late without calling will result in dismissal.
2. Wear appropriate attire (close-toed shoes with rubber soles, long pants, t-shirt); NO scandals, high heels, shorts, Capri pants, tank tops. Failure to follow this dress code on one occasion will result in dismissal.
3. Complete your assigned work without excessive breaks or standing around. Lack of motivation will result in dismissal.
4. Stay in areas where you have work to complete. No wandering around.
5. Complete the balance of your hours within a reasonable time frame. We expect that once you start your community service time, you will continue to strive towards completing it. This means that you will not be allowed to have more than 1 week between sessions. Failure to comply will result in dismissal.

If you require a letter of completion for the court, you must provide a 24-hour notice to allow us an opportunity to prepare that for you. You will NOT receive it immediately upon conclusion of your required hours.
